Part V Supplemental InformationPart and Line Number: Part I - Line 2

For scholarship recipients, we require them to send us their quarterly report card to ensure they are completing their studies. We are also in contact with the directors of the schools to be advised of any situation. For local school support, our director regularly visits the schools we have sent support to, at least once a month but usually once a week or more, to monitor that the resources we have provided are being put to good use in their intended purposes and to take pictures of the resources use. We also maintain good communication with the local teachers and leaders to receive feedback and pictures of the resources use from them.
